

Crime in Progress

1. Do not attempt to apprehend or interfere with a suspected criminal except in cases of self-protection.
2. If safe, get a good description of the criminal. Note size, height, weight; sex; color of skin, hair, facial hair, eyes; age; clothing; distinguishing characteristics or marks; method, and direction of travel. If there is a vehicle involved, note the license plate number, make and model, color, and outstanding characteristics of the car.
3. Use the closest Emergency Call Box to get help or call 734-9900 for Campus Security. Advise them of your situation, provide your name and location, and then remain where you are until contacted by a security officer.
4. If you are involved in a monetary transaction, you should:
 - Not resist - Do as the person says.
 - Give up the money immediately.
 - Wait until the perpetrator departs before sounding the alarm.
 - Attempt to get a good description of the person and direction of flight. Write down whatever you remember.
 - Shut down your operation and secure the crime scene.
 - Ask any witness(es) to remain for the arrival of Campus Security or the HPD.
5. In the event of civil disturbance, as much as possible continue with your normal routine. If the disturbance is outside, stay away from doors and windows.
6. Do not interfere with those persons creating the disturbance or with the law enforcement authorities on the scene.

Crime Prevention and Security Awareness Programs

- Familiarize yourself with the Emergency Call Boxes located around campus identified by a blue light mounted above the box.
- Travel/Park in lighted areas. Travel in pairs if possible and be aware of your surroundings. Use the escort service for assistance from dusk to dawn.

- Be careful when using elevators; get off if a suspicious person gets on.
- Be sure to lock/secure window(s) and door(s) in your room or office. Lock cars and bikes. Lock valuables in desk drawers, file cabinets, lockers, or the trunk of your car.
- Never loan keys to anyone (they may be easily lost, stolen, or duplicated).
- Mark or engrave your belongings; don't leave belongings/valuables unattended.
- Register your bike/moped. <http://www.co.honolulu.hi.us/dts/bikereg.htm>
- Let someone know that you are working odd hours or will be in the building after normal business hours.

Victims of Sexual Assault
