3. Pass Rate on NPTE as of March 7, 2014 report.

The state of Hawai‘i does not require licensure for PTAS to be employed in Hawai‘i. Therefore, completion of the National Physical Therapy Education (NPTE) Examination was not a priority for graduates living and working in Hawai‘i, majority of the pass rate scores are based on graduates who moved to another state.

As of March 2014, Hawai‘i laws changed and PTAs graduating after November 2014 will be required to achieve a Hawai‘i state license to be employed in Physical therapy facilities. The effective date of licensure requirement and grandfathering of graduates will be determined by the PT board of Hawai‘i.

The cumulative pass rate includes students who required more than one attempt to pass the examination for program graduates per year.

Class of 2011 (start August 2010) = 62.50% (5 out of 8)
