Kapiʻolani Community College, an EEO/AA institution, is committed to a policy of nondiscrimination on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, disability, or age in any of its policies, procedures, or practices.
The Kapo‘oloku Program for Native Hawaiian Student Success exists to ensure that Kapi‘olani Community College (KCC) programs and services are equitable for students of Hawaiian ancestry. The program provides a solid foundation for students by reinforcing the importance of education by promoting personal growth and development within the social, community and cultural contexts of Hawai‘i’s history.

Mission Statement
The Kapo‘oloku Program for Native Hawaiian Student Success exists to ensure that Kapi‘olani Community College (KCC) programs and services are equitable for students of Hawaiian ancestry. The program provides a solid foundation for students by reinforcing the importance of education by promoting personal growth and development within the social, community and cultural contexts of Hawai‘i’s history.

Goals
1. Coordinate initiatives at KCC that support Native Hawaiian student success.
2. Serve as the piko for KCC programs serving Native Hawaiian students.
3. Identify barriers for Native Hawaiian students that impact success at KCC.
4. Plan, develop and implement programs that encourage student development towards success through academic equity, servant leadership and participation in co-curricular activities.

Services for Success
The Kapo‘oloku program for Native Hawaiian Student Success is located in the Mānele building on the mauka end of the Kapi‘olani Community College campus.

Kapo‘oloku staff and student mentors can help you by:
• Answering any questions you have about your goals and college.
• Helping you connect to resources you need to succeed.
• Exploring financial aid and scholarship options.
• Advocating for you as a student worthy of a successful college journey.
• Facilitating learning through hands on and real life experiences.
• Connecting your history to your present, to shape your future.
• Encouraging you to develop into a strong, independent learner.
