International Education Week
Kapi‘olani Community College
Mon, Nov 16

10:30-11:00 AM ‘Ohia’s Cafeteria
JAPANESE ZITHER AND FLUTE: KOTO AND SHAKUKACHI
Darin Miyashiro (koto) and Chris Molina (shakuhachi) will perform traditional and contemporary music for Japanese zither and bamboo flute. Mixing 19th century classical music with 1970s rock’n’roll, this music celebrates the sounds of nature, the stillness of meditation, and the nightlife of Osaka. Darin is a licensed teacher of the International Sawai Koto Society and holds a B.S. degree in Music Education and a Master of Music. Chris is a disciple of Master Masakazu Kazuhi. Both musicians teach at the UHM music department.

12:15-1:30 PM Great Lawn BURMESE CHINLONE: TRADITIONAL SPORT OF BURMA
Chinlone is played with a ball wafer of bamboo andcombining speed, dance, and elegant movement. Organized & played by students of Asian 100.

11:00-12:00 PM ‘Ohia’s Cafeteria
INTERNATIONAL MUSIC CONCERT MUS 206 KCC Synthesizer Ensemble directed by Ms. Anne Craig Lum will perform music from Korea, China, Vietnam, Spain, Japan, Hawaii & the United States on keyboards, accompanied by guitar, violin and percussion.

11:00-2:00 PM ’Ohi’a Cafeteria
INTERNATIONAL LANGUAGE NIGHT Students of Chinese, Japanese, Korean and Spanish will have part in the struggle for equality and are leading inspiring lives today. Coordinated by Jody Yamamoto.

11:00-12:00 PM ’Ohi’a Cafeteria
INSPIRATIONAL PEOPLE Poster Sessions by ESOL 197 students from China, Japan, Korea and Israel illustrate how inspirational African-American, women, and people with disabilities have taken part in the struggle for equality and are leading inspiring lives today. Coordinated by Jody Yamamoto.

Wed, Nov 18

9:00-2:00 PM ’Ohi’a Cafeteria
PHI THETA KAPPA- HONOLULU PASSPORT AGENCY Representatives of the Honolulu Passport Agency will be here to provide information on obtaining a US Passport.

11:00-12:00 PM ‘Ohi’a Cafeteria
THAILAND IN THE MAKING: AN ETHNOMICUSICAL JOURNEY Thai music combines all aspects of life. It exists in the musical forms which are inseparable from the daily life of the Thai people. From the loftyANA CHANDRA KHUN the royal garb of the court to the down-to-earth TAW PORKHUN the street vendor—Thai music is experienced everywhere.

11:00-1:00 PM ’Ohi’a Cafeteria
THE CHINESE ECONOMY AND HAWAII Manuel Menendez, international businessman, humanitarian and consultant to world governments will speak on economic development & tourism, and about China’s evolving economy and its link to Hawaii. Presented by the KCC Economics & Business Club.

11:00-2:00 PM ’Ohi’a Cafeteria
JAPANESE ZITHER AND FLUTE: KOTO AND SHAKUKACHI Darin Miyashiro (koto) and Chris Molina (shakuhachi) will perform traditional and contemporary music for Japanese zither and bamboo flute. Mixing 19th century classical music with 1970s rock’n’roll, this music celebrates the sounds of nature, the stillness of meditation, and the nightlife of Osaka. Darin is a licensed teacher of the International Sawai Koto Society and holds a B.S. degree in Music Education and a Master of Music. Chris is a disciple of Master Masakazu Kazuhi. Both musicians teach at the UHM music department.

11:00-12:00 PM ’Ohi’a Cafeteria
THAILAND IN THE MAKING: AN ETHNOMICUSICAL JOURNEY Thai music combines all aspects of life. It exists in the musical forms which are inseparable from the daily life of the Thai people. From the loftyANA CHANDRA KHUN the royal garb of the court to the down-to-earth TAW PORKHUN the street vendor—Thai music is experienced everywhere.

11:00-1:00 PM ’Ohi’a Cafeteria
THE CHINESE ECONOMY AND HAWAII Manuel Menendez, international businessman, humanitarian and consultant to world governments will speak on economic development & tourism, and about China’s evolving economy and its link to Hawaii. Presented by the KCC Economics & Business Club.

11:00-2:00 PM ’Ohi’a Cafeteria
JAPANESE ZITHER AND FLUTE: KOTO AND SHAKUKACHI Darin Miyashiro (koto) and Chris Molina (shakuhachi) will perform traditional and contemporary music for Japanese zither and bamboo flute. Mixing 19th century classical music with 1970s rock’n’roll, this music celebrates the sounds of nature, the stillness of meditation, and the nightlife of Osaka. Darin is a licensed teacher of the International Sawai Koto Society and holds a B.S. degree in Music Education and a Master of Music. Chris is a disciple of Master Masakazu Kazuhi. Both musicians teach at the UHM music department.

12:15-1:30 PM ’Ohi’a Cafeteria
THE RICH TRADITION OF SEVILLANAS Enjoy Sevillanas with KCC students of Spanish. Then listen to Darin Miyashiro (koto) and Chris Molina (shakuhachi) will perform traditional and contemporary music for Japanese zither and bamboo flute. Mixing 19th century classical music with 1970s rock’n’roll, this music celebrates the sounds of nature, the stillness of meditation, and the nightlife of Osaka. Darin is a licensed teacher of the International Sawai Koto Society and holds a B.S. degree in Music Education and a Master of Music. Chris is a disciple of Master Masakazu Kazuhi. Both musicians teach at the UHM music department.

12:15-1:30 PM Lama 116
THE GLADES PROJECT Connie Flores, director/producer of this 20 minute documentary, will present interviews and historical footage from 1959-1985 and lead discussions about the history of transgender in historic Chinatown, Honolulu.

12:30 – 1:30 PM Oloona 209
JAPANESE TRADE AND INTER-RELATIONSHIP WITH HAWAII Paul Brewbaker, a former Bank of Hawaii chief economist, economic forecaster, analyst of Hawaii’s real estate, biotech, and energy & industries, (and local surfer) will speak about Japan’s export-oriented trade, trajectory, growth path, and connections to Hawaii. Presented by the ‘KCC Economics & Business Club.

12:30 – 1:30 PM Oloona 209
JAPANESE TRADE AND INTER-RELATIONSHIP WITH HAWAII Paul Brewbaker, a former Bank of Hawaii chief economist, economic forecaster, analyst of Hawaii’s real estate, biotech, and energy & industries, (and local surfer) will speak about Japan’s export-oriented trade, trajectory, growth path, and connections to Hawaii. Presented by the ‘KCC Economics & Business Club.

1:15-3:30 PM Oloona 118
KULI‘U HILMA: Aina Wong-Kalu will introduce her story as a transgender native Hawaiian teacher who inspires inclusiveness and respect for Hawaiian culture.

Thurs, Nov 19

9:00-2:00 PM HONOLULU PASSPORT AGENCY ‘Ohia’s Foyer Representatives of the Honolulu Passport Agency will be here to provide information on obtaining a US Passport.

11:00-12:00 AM ‘Ohia’s Cafeteria
THE RICH TRADITION OF SEVILLANAS Enjoy Sevillanas folk dance with KCC students of Spanish. Then listen to guitar and voice accompanied by Spanish language students presenting Malinanung Uni’s "Beautiful Rainforest Pu’uhonua".

10:45-12:00 PM Oloona 301
INTERNATIONAL DIPLOMAT IN RESIDENCE: EAST-WEST CENTER Don Sheehan, a 22-year U.S. Foreign Service Officer, is the East-West Center’s Ambassador-at-Large in the political and military affairs. Don’s assignments included consular, economic, political/military, and science and technology policy work in Poland, Tunisia, Belgium, Afghanistan & the United States. In Washington, D.C., Don has covered European and Eurasian affairs, & economic and international trade, environmental, scientific, and health issues.

11:00-11:30 AM ‘Ohia’s Cafeteria
INTERNATIONAL STEM: Students in the Science, Technology, Engineering, & Mathematics (STEM) Program will present their recent international experiences in Costa Rica through the NAPIRE program, in Japan through the Nagasaki University Summer Program on Environment and in China through the Freeman Program. Students share how STEM is informed through international collaboration and their own research & cultural experiences, including great photos!

11:00-2:00 PM ’Ohi’a Cafeteria
KCC KOREAN CLUB Enjoy cultural presentations by the students of Korean language.

11:00-1:30 PM ’Ohi’a Cafeteria
ETHNOMICUSICAL WORLD: A GLIMPSE INTO WORLD MUSIC Try out the Indonesian angklung, a bamboo instrument which has a beautifully resonant pitch. Presented by Beryl Yang and the students of MUSIC 107.

11:15-3:30 PM Lama Library
ECO ART SHOW AND ECO CHRISTMAS SALE Presented by KCC International Cafe, KCC’s national award winning intercultural service learning pathway, led by leaders Isaac Lau and Isa Shimizu.

11:00-3:30 PM ’Ohi’a Cafeteria
INSPIRATIONAL PEOPLE Poster sessions by ESOL 197 students from China, Japan, Korea and Israel illustrate how inspirational African-American, women, and people with disabilities have taken part in the struggle for equality and are leading inspiring lives today. Coordinated by Jody Yamamoto.

12:15-1:30 PM Lama Library
RAIN FOREST PU‘OHONUA: Saba Wight’s eloquent and moving memoir of those years of awakening. She found pu‘uhonua-sanctuary, refuge in the endangered Hawaiian rainforest ecosystem and the chances with us the feeling of being in a landscape alive with ancestral voices singing through mist and fire, native birds and insects, plants and ferns.

International Education Week is coordinated by Dr. Carl Hefner
hefner@hawaii.edu
734-9438