Should I consider Community Health Worker as a career?
Yes, if you enjoy helping people, being part of a health care or social services team, and have an interest in hands-on client/patient. For more information go to http://www.bls.gov. Type “Community Health Worker” in the search box.

Is the program accredited?
Currently, there is no accrediting body for Community Health Worker, although progress toward creating a national accrediting body is being made.

Is certification available?
There is no certification for Community Health Worker in the State of Hawai‘i.

What degrees and certificates do you offer?
The certificate of competence (CO).

Do I need to maintain a certain grade and grade point average in these courses?
Yes. For a CO, you must earn:

- A grade point average (GPA) of 2.0 (“C” average) or higher for all required courses and
- A grade of “C” or better in all required courses

What were the requirements in previous years?
For requirements in past years, contact a program counselor or view the previous online catalogs.

When can I enter the program?
You can enter the program any semester CHW100 Community Health Worker Fundamentals is being offered.

Are there any special entry requirements?
No. There are no special entry requirements.