ONLINE ASSOCIATE IN SCIENCE,
INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY
(60-61 SEMESTER CREDITS)

Program Description: The Information Technology program is career-oriented, career-laddered, and competency-based. The program focuses on working with data, cyber security, programming fundamentals, network connectivity, and hands-on type projects. This is all done within the context of supporting business activities. Upon satisfactory completion of the required 60 credits, the student earns an Associate in Science degree. The AS degree student can also earn Certificates of Competence in Help Desk, Programming, Database Administration and Cyber Security. Graduates are prepared to perform services as a cyber-security professional, computer support specialist, technical support specialist, help desk technician, database administrator, network administrator, front-end GUI interface programmer, or web developer using rapid prototyping tools to produce the front-end GUI interface with connectivity to appropriate databases at the back-end.

The AS program is articulated with 4-year programs such as the University of Hawai'i–West O'ahu Bachelor of Applied Science (BAS) degree with a concentration in Information Technology and the University of Hawai'i Maui College BAS degree in Applied Business and Information Technology (ABIT). To accomplish these articulations, the Information Technology program has created the third year Advanced Professional Certificate, 18 credits of Information Technology courses that build a bridge from the AS degree at Kapi'olani Community College to the BAS degree at University of Hawai'i–West O'ahu. The Information Technology program is career-laddered, providing multiple entry and exit points for students to continue their studies and/or enter the world of work.

The AS program includes a combination of business, computer, and information technology (including cyber security) courses and selected general education courses that emphasize business concepts, business writing, or communications. Campus-based computer and networking projects, faculty-supervised laboratories, and workplace internships provide hands-on experience designed to prepare students for positions in the field. Students gain a perspective of the role that information technology plays in a business environment. The program also places an emphasis on teamwork, written and oral communication skills, and presentation skills within the context of a business environment.

Program Student Learning Outcomes: Upon successful completion of the Associate in Science degree in Information Technology, the student should have met the following Student Learning Outcomes (SLOs):

- Design and develop technology solutions for contemporary business environments by employing appropriate problem-solving strategies.
- Collect and analyze data in support of contemporary business activities.
- Configure and administer networks to contribute to contemporary business solutions.
- Design and develop web solutions to address contemporary business objectives.

PARALEGAL CURRICULUM

ASSOCIATE IN SCIENCE, PARALEGAL (60-62 SEMESTER CREDITS)

Program Description: Kapi'olani Community College's Paralegal program is the only Hawai'i-based paralegal program offered in the State. Since 1978, it has been an American Bar Association-approved program and has been the major source of trained paralegals in the Hawai'i legal community. A paralegal is a legal professional who assists in the delivery of legal services, generally under the supervision of an attorney. A paralegal is a member of the legal team in private law offices, government agencies, and corporations, performing technical and paraprofessional responsibilities. These include interviewing and assisting clients, legal research and writing, communicating effectively, implementing legal procedures, preparing instruments and documents, assisting in judicial and administrative appearances, representing clients in selected administrative hearings, completing client projects, calendaring, and coordinating office functions. These functions overlap with those of an attorney. The program graduate will be qualified to work in a private law firm, corporation, public agencies, and public law firms.

A paralegal may not provide legal services directly to the public.

Program Mission: The Paralegal Program's mission is to provide paralegal education to students interested in careers as paralegals or for positions where communication, analytical, and organizational skills as well as knowledge of law and legal procedures are necessary. The program provides the foundation for students to think critically, and act ethically in the workplace and in the community. The program also prepares students to continue educational pursuits and encourages lifelong learning and community service.

Program Approval: The Paralegal Program has ABA Approval, which is the national mark of excellence for paralegal programs. The Program has enjoyed continuous ABA Approval since 1978.

Program Student Learning Outcomes: Upon successful completion of the Associate in Science degree in Paralegal, the student should be able to:

- Ethics: Identify ethical issues that arise and apply rules of professional conduct to determine how to resolve them (e.g., show awareness of legal ethics, confidentiality, and unauthorized practice of law issues).
- Communication: Demonstrate oral and written skills required in legal settings (e.g., convey knowledge and ideas clearly and precisely).
- Critical Thinking: Demonstrate basic principles of legal analysis and apply critical thinking skill (e.g., integrate and synthesize concepts, generate options, and make logical and rational decisions).
- Interpersonal Skills: Demonstrate adaptability, flexibility, and sensitivity in working with diverse types of people, identify and resolve problems and disputes (e.g., establish effective working relationships with attorneys, coworkers, clients, and others).
- Professionalism: Demonstrate organizational skills to perform and prioritize assignments and utilize time efficiently (e.g., manage workflow, adhere to procedural deadlines, use resources and time efficiently).

- Technology & Information Literacy: Identify, evaluate, and use appropriate technology and resources to effectively investigate, research, and present legal issues (e.g., conduct library and online legal research, and prepare, edit, and transmit legal and court documents).

Since 1978, it has been an American Bar Association-approved program and has been the major source of trained paralegals in the Hawai'i legal community. A paralegal is a legal professional who assists in the delivery of legal services, generally under the supervision of an attorney. A paralegal is a member of the legal team in private law offices, government agencies, and corporations, performing technical and paraprofessional responsibilities. These include interviewing and assisting clients, legal research and writing, communicating effectively, implementing legal procedures, preparing instruments and documents, assisting in judicial and administrative appearances, representing clients in selected administrative hearings, completing client projects, calendaring, and coordinating office functions. These functions overlap with those of an attorney. The program graduate will be qualified to work in a private law firm, corporation, public agencies, and public law firms.

A paralegal may not provide legal services directly to the public.

Program Mission: The Paralegal Program's mission is to provide paralegal education to students interested in careers as paralegals or for positions where communication, analytical, and organizational skills as well as knowledge of law and legal procedures are necessary. The program provides the foundation for students to think critically, and act ethically in the workplace and in the community. The program also prepares students to continue educational pursuits and encourages lifelong learning and community service.

Program Approval: The Paralegal Program has ABA Approval, which is the national mark of excellence for paralegal programs. The Program has enjoyed continuous ABA Approval since 1978.

Program Student Learning Outcomes: Upon successful completion of the Associate in Science degree in Paralegal, the student should be able to:

- Ethics: Identify ethical issues that arise and apply rules of professional conduct to determine how to resolve them (e.g., show awareness of legal ethics, confidentiality, and unauthorized practice of law issues).

OCCUPATIONAL THERAPY ASSISTANT CURRICULUM

ASSOCIATE IN SCIENCE, OCCUPATIONAL THERAPY ASSISTANT (76-77 SEMESTER CREDITS)

Program Description: This curriculum is designed to prepare students to work under the supervision of a registered occupational therapist with clients who need to improve their independence in functional activities relating to activities of daily living, work or play/leisure as a result of injury, illness, the aging process, developmental delays, poverty, or cultural differences. These remediation activities take place in a variety of health care facilities such as hospitals, clinics, rehabilitation centers, public and private schools, nursing homes, home care settings and emerging areas of practice. Students have faculty-supervised clinical learning experiences in a variety of these settings.

The Occupational Therapy Assistant program is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Occupational Therapy Education (ACOTE) of the American Occupational Therapy Association (AOTA), located at 4720 Montgomery Lane, Suite 200, Bethesda, MD 20824-3449. Telephone 301-652-AOTA and 301-652-6611). Website address is www.acoteonline.org.

Graduates of the program will be able to sit for the national certification examination for the occupational therapy assistant administered by the national Board for Certification in Occupational therapy (NBCOT). After successful completion of this exam, the individual will be a Certified Occupational Therapy Assistant (COTA). Many states other than Hawai'i require licensure in order to practice; however, state licenses are usually based on the results of the NBCOT Certification Examination. Recertification occurs every three years.

Special Admission Requirements for Occupational Therapy Assistant: Additional information is listed in the "Special Requirements for Programs in Health Career Education" section. Acceptance into the Occupational Therapy Assistant program is on a best-qualified, first-accepted rating system for (a) grades of completed pre-requisites, and (b) minimum pre-requisite GPR of 2.75. Selection is based on total qualifying scores in rank order from the highest until admission quota is reached. Applications are located online at the KapCC website. ONLINE ASSOCIATE IN ARTS, LIBERAL ARTS

(60 SEMESTER CREDITS) COMPLETELY ONLINE

Program Description: The completely online Associate in Arts (AA) degree in Liberal Arts is designed to give students the skills, knowledge, and attitudes necessary to transfer to a four-year college / university, seek employment, contribute to their communities, and pursue lifelong learning. These skills, knowledge, and attitudes include creative problem solving, clear communication, analytical thinking, informed decision making, ethical judgment, teamwork and collaboration, and strong leadership.

AA Degree Requirements: Some courses fulfill both the University of Hawai'i at Mānoa and Kapi'olani Community College general education core requirements. Others fulfill only Kapi'olani Community College requirements. Students intending to transfer to University of Hawai'i at Mānoa must be careful when selecting courses that satisfy only Kapi'olani Community College requirements. Students should note that baccalaureate degree requirements vary at University of Hawai'i at Mānoa and should see their academic advisor for program details. As part of the AA curriculum, students must complete two writing intensive (WI) courses. The Hawaiian/ASL/foreign language requirement may be met through the completion of first level study of approved language foreign to the student (i.e., through 102) and/or through demonstrated proficiency at same level.

Course Substitutions: Substitutions to the online AA degree requirements may be granted if identical substitutions are officially granted by a college at University of Hawai'i at Mānoa. Please see an academic advisor for details.

Students majoring in Liberal Arts may substitute other courses for a specific requirement if the Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs agrees that the substitution is required at the college to which the student intends to transfer. The student must complete and submit a course waiver form with supporting documentation.

University of Hawai'i Articulation: Effective Fall 1994, students who have earned an articulated Associate in Arts (AA) degree from a University of Hawai'i Community College shall be accepted as having fulfilled the general education core requirements at all other University of Hawai'i campuses. While an articulated AA degree satisfies general education core requirements, students must also complete all specialized lower-division, major, college and degree/graduation requirements. Additional campus specific requirements, such as competency in a foreign language or writing intensive courses may also be required. With planning, most, if not all, of these requirements may be incorporated into the Associate in Arts degree; if not, they are required in addition to the Associate in Arts degree.

Articulation information may be viewed at <https://www.hawaii.edu/offices/vp-academic-strategy/academic-programs-and-policy/articulation-and-transfer/>

AA Degree Requirements: Some courses fulfill both the University of Hawai'i at Mānoa and Kapi'olani Community College general education core requirements. Others fulfill only Kapi'olani Community College requirements. Students intending to transfer to University of Hawai'i at Mānoa must be careful when selecting courses that satisfy only Kapi'olani Community College requirements. Students should note that baccalaureate degree requirements vary at University of Hawai'i at Mānoa and should see their academic advisor for program details. As part of the AA curriculum, students must complete two writing intensive (WI) courses. The Hawaiian/ASL/foreign language requirement may be met through the completion of first level study of approved language foreign to the student (i.e., through 102) and/or through demonstrated proficiency at same level. Course Substitutions: Substitutions to the AA degree requirements may be granted if identical substitutions are officially granted by a college at University of Hawai'i at Mānoa. Please see an academic advisor for details. Students majoring in Liberal Arts may substitute other courses for a specific requirement if the Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs agrees that the substitution is required at the college to which the student intends to transfer. The student must complete and submit a course waiver form with supporting documentation. University of Hawai'i Articulation: Effective Fall 1994, students who have earned an articulated Associate in Arts (AA) degree from a University of Hawai'i Community College shall be accepted as having fulfilled the general education core requirements at all other University of Hawai'i campuses. While an articulated AA degree satisfies general education core requirements, students must also complete all specialized lower-division, major, college and degree/graduation requirements. Additional campus specific requirements, such as competency in a foreign language or writing intensive courses may also be required. With planning, most, if not all, of these requirements may be incorporated into the Associate in Arts degree; if not, they are required in addition to the Associate in Arts degree. (60 SEMESTER CREDITS)

Program Description: The Associate in Arts degree in Liberal Arts with a concentration in Economics prepares students to transfer to four-year institutions. This 60-credit program satisfies all of the requirements for the A.A. degree in Liberal Arts. Targeted advising and a carefully planned course sequence will enable students to successfully transfer to baccalaureate institutions in Hawai'i that have Economics majors, such as the University of Hawai'i at Mānoa, the University of Hawaii West Oahu, the University of Hawai'i Maui College, and the University of Hawai'i at Hilo, or to any other four-year university.

Program Student Learning Outcomes for the AA in Liberal Arts with a concentration in Economics: In addition to the general student learning outcomes of the AA Liberal Arts program in critical thinking, information retrieval and technology, oral communication, quantitative reasoning, written communication and understanding of self and community, students completing the Associate in Arts in Liberal Arts with a concentration in Economics should be able to:

Program Description:

The Associate in Arts (AA) degree in Liberal Arts is designed to give students the skills, knowledge, and attitudes necessary to transfer to a four-year college or university, seek employment, contribute to their communities, and pursue lifelong learning. These skills, knowledge, and attitudes include creative problem-solving, clear communication, analytical thinking, informed decision-making, ethical judgment, teamwork and

After successful completion of the program, students will have a strong understanding of the field of Psychology, and good foundational knowledge of the research methods and statistics used by psychologists, as well as a clear sense of major perspectives which define the field of Psychology. Targeted advising and a carefully planned course sequence enable students to successfully transfer to baccalaureate institutions in Hawai'i that have Psychology-related majors, such as the University of Hawai'i at Mānoa, University of Hawai'i Maui College, and the University of Hawai'i at Hilo.

Program Student Learning Outcomes for the AA in Liberal Arts with a concentration in Psychology: In addition to the general student learning outcomes of the AA Liberal Arts program in critical thinking, information retrieval and technology, oral communication, quantitative reasoning, written communication and understanding of self and community, students completing the Associate in Arts in Liberal Arts with a concentration in History should be able to:

CERTIFICATE OF ACHIEVEMENT, BIOTECHNOLOGY (42 SEMESTER CREDITS)

Program Description: Biotechnology is a commercial, medical or research endeavor that uses living cells or their components to create useful products. The applications of biotechnology are widely employed in pharmaceuticals, fermentation technologies agriculture, the diagnosis and prevention of disease, vaccine development and production, forensics and bioremediation. The Certificate of Achievement in Biotechnology prepares students for entry-level employment in the biotechnology industry and research labs. Students learn basic laboratory skills, equipment operation and maintenance, quality control, safety and good manufacturing practices.

Program Student Learning Outcomes: Upon successful completion of this program, the student should be able to:

- Demonstrate competence in performing fundamental laboratory procedures and protocols common to biotechnology research, development and production in the fields of molecular biology, bacteriology, cell biology, biochemistry and immunology.
- Apply the scientific method to experiment and conduct research logically and safely following all safety, operational and record keeping protocols and apply knowledge to formulate and test hypotheses and analyze results and troubleshoot problems as well as to anticipate biological, chemical and other hazards.
- Analyze, research, and synthesize laboratory and published data using appropriate bioinformatics computational tools and software, and report results in standard scientific formats such as poster, oral and written presentations.

CERTIFICATE OF ACHIEVEMENT,
STEM EDUCATION
(37-39 SEMESTER CREDITS)

Program Description: The Certificate of Achievement in STEM Education is a 37 to 39-credit program that provides personalized advising and a carefully planned course sequence to fulfill all of the requirements for the AS degree in Natural Sciences. This program provides a curricula that focuses on basic Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics (STEM), and prepares students with the necessary competencies to successfully apply to a teacher licensure-track program at baccalaureate institutions (e.g., University of Hawai'i at Mānoa, College of Education), and/or work in entry-level positions (e.g., teacher assistants, educational paraprofessionals, tutors) with students in K-12 settings in STEM.

Program Student Learning Outcomes: Upon successful completion of this program, the student should be able to:

- Use instructional and behavioral management strategies to facilitate a positive learning environment for students.
- Demonstrate knowledge and skills specific to the instruction and support of students in a variety of settings.
- Use informed decision making to function effectively in the classroom, school, local, and/or professional communities.
