1. Purpose

The broad educational purposes of Kapi'olani Community College are expressed in the institutional mission statement. The mission statement communicates to students and the general public the intended student population served by the College and the commitment of the College to support student learning.

The mission statement for Kapi'olani Community College is consistent with the broader mission statements established for the University of Hawai'i system and University of Hawai'i Office of the Vice President for Community Colleges. Specifically, the Board of Regents has established that:

The primary mission of the university is to provide environments in which faculty, staff and students can discover, examine critically, preserve and transmit the knowledge, wisdom, and values that will help ensure the survival of present and future generations with improvement in the quality of life.

(BOR Policy, Section III.C.1)

The University of Hawai'i Community Colleges are open-door, low-tuition institutions. Community colleges offer two-year college transfer and general education programs, two and four-year career and technical education programs; semi-professional, career and technical, and continuing education programs, and such other educational programs and services appropriate to community colleges.

(BOR Policy, Section III.C (a)(4))

2. Related University Policies

These policies on mission statement are derived from or related to the following University of Hawai'i policies:

- a. Board of Regents Policy, RP 4.201, Mission and Purpose of the University of Hawai'i
- b. University of Hawai'i Systemwide Executive Policy EP 4.201, Integrated Long-Range Planning Framework

3. Components of the Mission Statement

The Kapi'olani Community College mission statement shall define the College's mission and incorporate the vision, purposes, and common values of the University system, emphasizing a fundamental commitment to access and quality. The mission statement shall also highlight the the College's special advantage and distinction for all learners in a global community. In addition, the mission statement shall clearly differentiate Kapi'olani Community College from other components in the University system in terms of its areas of distinction.

4. Periodic Review of the Mission Statement

By Board of Regents policy, the mission statement must be reviewed at least every fifteen years. Kapi'olani Community College policy is to review and revise, as needed, the mission statement each six years in conjunction with the creation of the new strategic plan.

The periodic review of the mission statement shall include a process soliciting broad input and consideration from among the faculty, staff, students, and community members.

Under unusual circumstances, the mission statement may be reviewed more frequently in response to proposals for significant new programs or activities that are not included within the currently approved mission statement.

5. Mission Statement Approval

The University Board of Regents must approve the mission statement.

Prior to submittal to the Board of Regents, the following entities must approve the College mission statement:

Authorized Governance Organizations

- 'Aha Kalāualani
- Faculty Senate
- Staff Council
- Student Congress
