

UNIVERSITY of HAWAII®
KAPI'OLANI
 COMMUNITY COLLEGE

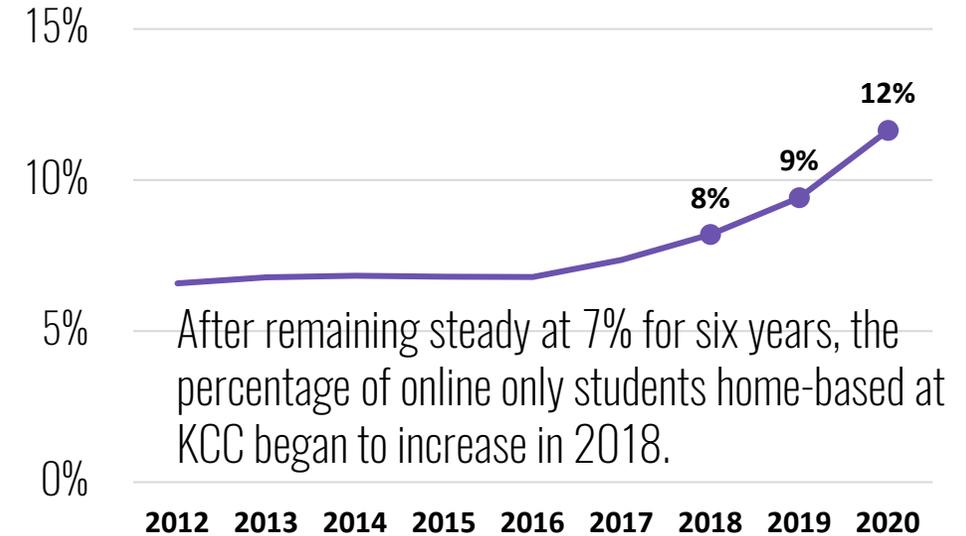

online only
 Students in Spring

Data Dimensions
 Transforming conversations around research & results wonder · worry · wish

Snapshot

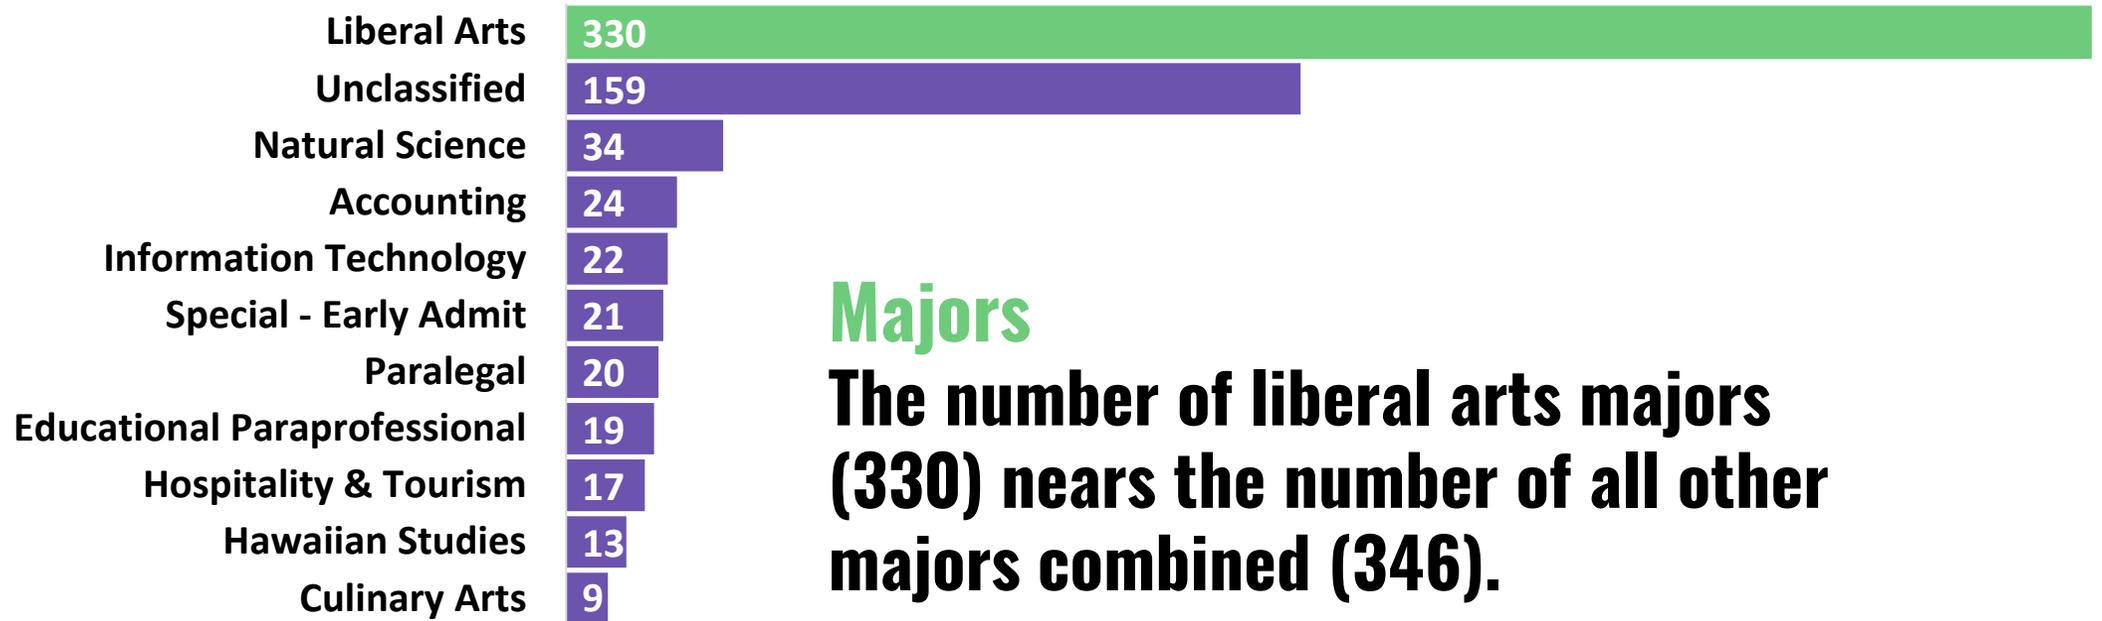

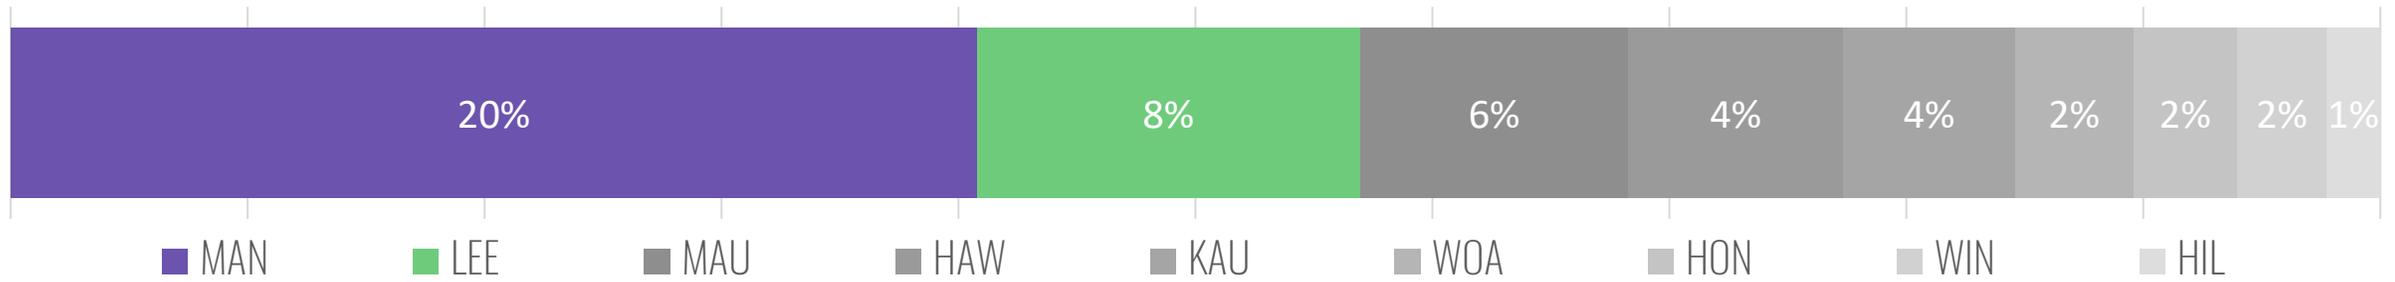

In spring 2020, Kapi'olani CC had 1,338 online only students take at least one class at our college. What follows is data on 676 students home-based at our institution.

Where did our online only students most recently attend high school? Eight of the Top 10 are on island.

662 (49%) of the 1,338 online only students registered in at least one KCC class in spring 2020 were home-based elsewhere:

Majors

The number of liberal arts majors (330) nears the number of all other majors combined (346).

*noted

In spring 2020, our online only students had an average age of 28 compared to 25 for our average age for students overall.

On average, they took two courses this past semester.

On average, they have attempted 32 cumulative credits and have earned 22 for a 68% course success rate

Also, 22% of our online only students are Native Hawaiian compared to 19% of our students who took at least one face-to-face course in spring 2020.